

MASTER CLASS BEST: HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT SAFETY TRAINING

COURSE DATES

12-16 June 2023
The Little Oak Castle,
Zur Eiche 12,
93336 Altmannstein, Germany

ALTERNATIVE DATES

11-15 September 2023
2-6 October 2023

SAFETY SECURITY

As a journalist, you need to be well equipped physically and mentally to face potential dangers when reporting in unsafe and unpredictable situations.

WHO IT'S FOR

- Journalist, reporter, correspondent
- Cameraman working in the field and technical staff
- Head of foreign news desk

SKILLS LEARNT

- Safety and Security

SCHEDULE

Day 1: From 15:30 to 18:00 CET

Day 2: From 08:00 to 18:00 CET

Day 3: From 08:00 to 18:00 CET

Day 4: From 08:00 to 18:00 CET

Day 5: From 08:00 to 16:30 CET

FEES

€ 4'450

This fee includes:

- Transportation from/to the airport to The location of the course
- Meals from Monday evening to Friday lunch included
- Accommodation from Monday to Friday

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

- Situation awareness and personal security
- Planning how to get a story
- Logistics and safety planning
- Basic life-support course
- Avoiding kidnap, surviving abduction
- Stress management
- Working with the military
- Practical training in civil disturbance and operating safety in high risk urban areas
- Practical training in a conflict environment
- Medical and first aid (gunshot wound, heavy bleeding, broken limbs)

FACULTY MEMBER

- Former senior officers
- Trainers and operators from the British Special Forces
- Front-line media professionals
- Specialists in technical and IT security
- Medical experts

CERTIFICATION

After completing the modules, you will be awarded an EBU Academy Certificate